

What Others are Saying ...

In the North

Right on! The parents are really happy to have On Eagle's Wings Bible Camp here. Even a month after camp, the kids sing the songs they learned when they're out playing. It really lifts their spirits to sing praises together. We are so grateful.

- Geela, Grise Fiord, Nunavut.

Could we use your Bible Camp materials in our Sunday School?

- Rachel, Inuvik, Northwest Territories

Thank you for coming back. You make a difference in our kids' lives.

- Community leader, northern Saskatchewan

Children at Bible Camp

You don't have cool stuff, you have fun stuff!

- Bethany, a child at Bible Camp as she discovered that exploring Bible stories at camp was enjoyable, even without her iPad and video games!

Is there Bible Camp on Saturday?

- A northern child who did not want Bible Camp to end

Volunteers

I loved just being with the kids and their families. To spend time and talk with them was a real privilege. Their hospitality impressed me. Wow! Talk about going out of their way to make us feel welcome!

- Shawn, volunteer Bible Camp teacher in northern Alberta.

It felt good to be back in Behchoko—a place that has become our northern home—and I am overwhelmed with happiness to see the people I have grown to love so much over the years.

- Susan, volunteer Bible Camp teacher in Behchoko for 10 years.
