Teaching Bible School is challenging. You will remember the life-changing experiences! As we consider your application we'd like to get to know you even better in order to place you in a community and on a team where your skills and background On Eagle's Wings Bible School experience are most useful. Please answer the questions in light of your previous Bible School experience with On Eagle's Wings. Please take time in filling out the following information request. Your responses are most important. Attach an extra page(s) as needed.

1. Describe your previous experience with On Eagle's Wings Bible School. What was your most significant learning?

2. Please describe your reasons for wanting lead a Bible School again.

3. Please describe any challenges in your northern experience(s) as you worked in another culture, possibly another denomination and within another person's home?

4. What do you plan to do differently should you return to the North?

5. Describe the leadership dynamics and experiences from your last Bible School - include things you learned and what you might change and how conflict management was handled:

6. The On Eagle's Wings founders (board members and staff) identified four Core Values. These values are the foundation for our ministry and organization. As you think about teaching Bible School again, briefly describe how you would work with new team members (of any age group) in promoting and living these ideals?

a. Respect

b. Integrity

c. Stewardship

d. Ecumenism

7. Getting to know people from another culture is an important part of Bible School. With your previous experiences as a guide, what you will do to engage further building strategies to connect with the people and create relationships in the community you will serve?

8. What would have been helpful to know prior to your first year (or the last year you volunteered) as an On Eagle's Wings volunteer?

9. Additional Comments

Thank you for completing the application form. Your responses are helpful to the selection process and our orientation practices. Please make sure that you and your pastor have signed page 2 of the application form and that you have enclosed (or verify that you have contributed) your GIGGLE Northern Travel Fund donation. Any questions or concerns? Please contact us (see page 2).
