Teaching Bible Camp is challenging. We want to be sure you fully enjoy your experience. As we consider your application we'd like to get to know you better to place you in a community where your skills and background are most useful. Please take time in filling out the following information request. Your responses are most important and confidential. Attach any extra pages as needed.

1. Please tell us your reasons for wanting to lead Bible Camp for On Eagle's Wings. What are your goals for this experience?

2. Describe any previous cross-cultural experience. What was your most significant learning?

3. Briefly state previous teaching/leading experience and special abilities you have. For example: music, crafts, storytelling, games, drama or puppets.

4. Define what it means to be a GUEST in -

a) another culture: _____

b) another person's home: _____

c) another denomination: _____

5. What would you describe as good team dynamics in the context of a Bible Camp?

6. Should a team have a leader? How should they be chosen? What are the responsibilities of the team leader?

7. On Eagle's Wings has identified four Core Values. These values are the foundation for our ministry and organization. As you think about leading Bible Camp, briefly define or describe the following values in your own words:

a. Respect _____

b. Integrity _____

c. Stewardship _____

d. Ecumenism _____

8. A primary goal of On Eagle's Wings is to identify, encourage, and engage local people as Christian Education leaders and helpers in their own community. What will you do to identify, invite, include and ultimately empower local people to be part of your team?

9. Getting to know people from another culture is an important part of Bible Camp. What will you do to get to know the people in the community so that you may walk with them?

10. What will you do to help team members share their experience each day and learn from each other? How will you encourage and participate in personal and team devotional time? How would you handle team disputes, dissensions or awkward situations within the team?

11. What is the most important asset you bring as a Bible Camp leader? Consider topics such as: Connecting with children, youth and adults; craft skills; game skills; leading skills; and other qualities that might be a part of a Bible Camp. Please explain.

12. Additional Comments

Thank you for completing the application form. Your responses are helpful to the selection process and our orientation practices. Please make sure that you and your pastor have signed page 2 of the application form and that you have enclosed (or verify that you have contributed) your GIGGLE Northern Travel Fund donation. Any questions or concerns? Please contact us (see page 2).
