Even for the most experienced teachers, Bible Camp can be challenging. You will remember the life-changing experiences and be a life-long learner. As we consider your application we'd like to know how you've changed as a result of your previous Bible Camp experiences. This will help us place you in a community and on a team where your skills and background are most useful. Please answer the questions in light of your previous Bible Camp experience with On Eagle's Wings. Please take time in filling out the following information request. Your responses are most important. Attach an extra page(s) as needed.

1. Which communities have you taught in before?

2. Describe your previous experience with On Eagle's Wings Bible Camps. What was your most significant learning?

3. Please describe your reasons for wanting lead a Bible Camp again.

4. Please describe any challenges in your northern experience(s) as you worked in another culture, possibly another denomination and within another person's home?

5. What do you plan to do differently should you return to the North?

6. Describe the leadership dynamics and experiences from your last Bible Camp - include things you learned and what you might change and how conflict management was handled:

7. On Eagle's Wings has identified four Core Values. These values are the foundation for our ministry and organization. As you think about teaching Bible Camp again, briefly describe how you would work with new team members (of any age group) in promoting and living these ideals.

a. Respect

b. Integrity

c. Stewardship

d. Ecumenism

8. Getting to know people from another culture is an important part of Bible Camp. With your previous experiences as a guide, what you will do to engage further building strategies to connect with the people and create relationships in the community you will serve?

9. What would have been helpful to know prior to your first year (or the last year you volunteered) as a On Eagle's Wings Bible Camp teacher?

10. Additional Comments

Thank you for completing the application form. Your responses are helpful to the selection process and our orientation practices. Please make sure that you and your pastor have signed page 2 of the application form and that you have enclosed (or verify that you have contributed) your GIGGLE Northern Travel Fund donation. Any questions or concerns? Please contact us (see page 2).
